Northwest Independent Baseball League

Adult Wood Bat Summer League Player, Manager, & Umpire Code of Conduct

As a member of Northwest Independent Baseball League organization, I recognize that:

NWIBL Adult baseball represents those things which are great about the sport of baseball and amateur athletics.

I am an ambassador for my community, for baseball, this league, for amateur athletics, for my team and for myself.

The behavior of any single player (or group of players) can have an impact upon the team and its reputation in the community. It's young people, and within the baseball community.

I have an obligation to conduct myself on and off the field in ways which bring honor and distinction to myself, my teammates, this team, this league, all of baseball and this community.

I agree not to possess or consume any alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs of any kind while on the property of any of the facilities utilized by NWIBL. This includes the playing field, dugouts, spectator areas, bathrooms, parking lot or other areas of the facilities. Violations will result in suspensions or expulsion from the league.

I understand that fighting, the physical abuse of players, umpires, or spectators and the use of abusive language will not be tolerated and will result in forfeits, fines, suspensions or expulsion from the league.

I therefore pledge that:

My actions on and off the field will be positive and I will strive to be a model citizen, to help create a positive perception of myself, my team and baseball.

I will show consideration for the general public; and any hotel at which the team may stay while traveling; for others any time we are in public.

I pledge to do everything I can, on and off the field, to help create a positive perception of myself, my team and NWIBL adult baseball league.

I understand that:

The management of NWIBL will have no tolerance for behavior which casts the team, league and baseball in an unfavorable light. The consequences will be:

My tenure as a member of NWIBL will come to an immediate end.

Other teams and leagues will be notified that I have been dropped from the league roster and why.
